JANUARY 2022

President's message;

Dear Sister Zontians

Happy New Year 2022. May this year bring joy and laughter, peace and comfort to you all.

As we begin this new year of 2022, let us celebrate what was good and enjoyable. I know that for some 2021 was a difficult year and many of us were impacted with many different challenges. Going forward supporting each other, let us look ahead to what we can accomplish together.

Our Christmas party at the Conewango Club was a lot of fun, with laughter and surprises. Thank you to Melinda and the program committee for the great party. Thank you.

In the E-News from D4 dated December 19, our club's advocacy is recognized with a very nice picture for the 16 Days of Activism.

Now begins the busiest time for our club. The nominees for Women Who Make a Difference, Savannah Zimmerman Casey and Jan Graziano, were approved by email vote of the members. They will be recognized at our lunch meeting January 13th. The next service project is Women Are Wonderful and Free the Girls at JDFC on Saturday, February 12th.

Then LNL will be March 5th. So now is the time to connect with the sponsors you have for gifts. We will have a special money/lottery tree in honor of Barb Tubbs with the proceeds going to the library at LNL. Please bring either money or lottery tickets to our next meetings. All gifts should be to Marina by February 11th.

Our membership committee has been active with many good ideas for our 2 goals. One of our goals for the year is to recruit new members, so please ask women or men you know who might be interested about joining. Please invite them to a meeting or one of our activities.

Our other goal was to increase participation at meetings and activities. Please plan to attend the January meeting. Maybe we can add zoom to our in person meeting for those who are unable to attend in person for the lunch meeting.

Looking forward to seeing you all as we celebrate and work together in 2022.

Cheryl

Amelia Earhart at Chautauqua Institution

A Chautauqua Archives photo shows Dr. Bestor welcoming Amelia Earhart after her landing on the 14th fairway of the Chautauqua Golf Course on July 20, 1929.

Tracy Kirchhoff, my co-worker, at Jamestown Kitchen and Bath, was at a jobsite at Chautauqua Institution and saw the picture on the left of Amelia Earhart and Dr Bestor, who was the president of Chautauqua Institution at the time. I did some quick research and found out that she landed on the 14th fairway of the Chautauqua Golf Course on July 20, 1929.

Earhart arrived as part of a lecture circuit that followed her famous transatlantic flight in June 1928, a flight that made her the first woman to fly across the Atlantic Ocean, and which cemented her as a pivotal figure in 19th-century aeronautics.

"Stepping from the comfortably appointed plane as it came to rest on the fourteenth fairway, Miss Earhart, by her infectious smile, won her way immediately to the hearts of the crowd which had come to greet her," the Daily reported on July 22, 1929. "Taken by auto to the home of President and Mrs. Bestor, she was cheered by the people along the route. She, with Lieutenant Stevens, the pilot, and Mr. Hutchinson, mechanic, was entertained at luncheon at the President's home."

From her rendezvous with Arthur Bestor, Earhart proceeded to the Amphitheater, where she spoke about her 20-hour and 40-minute, 1928 flight as a passenger across the Atlantic in the tri-motored Fokker plane, Friendship.
