Birthing Kits...searching for a home

We will once again be making birthing kits in January. However, the committee is searching for home(s) for our 2013 kits and are welcoming any suggestions from you, our members. We have no designated location for the kits yet and would like to be able to designate a destination before we make the new ones.

Please let Melinda Johnson know as soon as possible if you have any thoughts on this. Thank you!

Happy

Thanksgiving

Pecan UPDATE:

Pecans have been ordered. This year's crop will be ready November 7th and is to be shipped to Northwest Savings Bank where Danielle and Laura will eagerly distribute to the membership. They will let you know when they arrive.

Each Zontian is expected to sell 12 bags and will pay the money when the bags are picked up.

The board has decided to keep the price at $9 per bag this year since there were no cost increases.
