ADVANCING THE STATUS OF WOMEN WORLDWIDE...

Volume 1, Issue 1

October 1, 2009

Summer Surprise by Anita Cohan

Members of the club posed for a picture while attending the Summer Surprise at the Wilder Museum in Irvine, PA.

All the ladies that attended our 2009 Summer Surprise had an enjoyable and educational time.

We toured the Warren County Visitors Bureau with the new Executive Director, Mike Olewine, giving us an update about the center. Then on to the Wilder Museum in Irvine (the long way around to suspend the surprise) where Warren County Historical Society Director, Michele Gray, welcomed us to the center.

Everyone was given time to browse the museum's exhibits. And to round off our evening, our ever wonderful cuisine creator, Lynda Slocum, prepared a delicious picnic for us. Rain did not permit us to eat out of doors, but the conference room in the museum made a nice location to eat and chat.

We chose the Wilder Museum for a couple of reasons. Many local residents have not seen the great historical values the center has on display and funding has been cut for the center and felt our group could help, as we presented Michele with a $150 donation.

Thank you all for making our 2009 Summer Surprise another great social event.

Upcoming Meeting:

Thursday, October 8, 2009
Social time 5:30 pm
Dinner 6:00 pm
Jefferson DeFrees Center

Donna Smith, Program Director at the Warren Forest Hi-Ed Council, will speak on the new GED diploma program and other educational programs. Terri Ericson, Program Director of Jamestown Community College, will tell about the collaboration with Area on Aging for older adult's education and their JCC college curriculums.

Both will share new formats and technology used for today's educational opportunities through their systems.

District IV Area V Director, Carma Horner, will be attending the festivities to install new members.

Hope you can all attend.
